Mrs. Knafeh is smart, soft, sweet woman like Knafeh & chic too All her neighbors & loved ones called her Mrs. Knafeh, because she loves passionately making Knafeh & she didn't do anything but Knafeh. On her day, she only does two things.

Either she goes into the kitchen and make a knafeh, or she sits on the computer and works.

Mrs. Knafeh has become smart & knows how to make all kinds of Knafeh, such as, for example, Knafeh with cheese, Knafeh with cream, and Knafeh with chocolate & mango as well.. No... and not only that!!

Mrs. Knafeh was able to innovate new types of Knafeh, such as Knafeh with pastrami, Knafeh with minced meat, Knafeh with eggs, and Knafeh with Knafeh.

As for her children and her husband, they got bored of eating Knafeh.

They kept going to eat outside and in different restaurants, or in food cart and they forgot to eat at home at all.

Every once in a while she found one of them sick and sleeping in bed... Thus, she becomes compelled to visit the doctor and buy medicines in addition to staying up late at night with the one who is patient.

One day, Mrs. Knafeh opened the internet, and she was searching for a new Knafeh recipe to make for her sick son, who was lying in bed. And she found a site called Hello World Magazine

Hello World Magazine is an online magazine that publishes various topics. She liked the site very much, the recipes on it, and many other topics in fashion, decoration, travel, and stories as well.

When she began to read more and more on the site, she liked some food recipes & decided to make them as well & move away from the method of making Knafeh for a while, for the sake of her tired son & her husband as well and she discovered & learned about a completely new thing.

And it is that food diversity is very important and necessary for human health. And not because I like a certain type of food, I prefer to eat it for life and forget about the rest of the types and varieties of vegetables, fruits and proteins as well.

In order for Mrs. Knafeh not to lose her fame by making Knafeh, she decided that she prefers to make Knafeh, but she only does it once a week.. On that day, she invited all her loved ones, friends, neighbors & relatives to her house so that they could eat Knafeh & drink tea with her.. What a sweet gathering.. Not like this, Mrs. Knafeh!!
